

Visit Haralson County

Bremen, Buchanan, Tallapoosa, Waco

Media Contact:

Gail Priest

Tourism Coordinator

770.630.8946

Tallapoosa, GA - Veterans Memorial and Medal of Honor Park Preserving the history and service of Haralson County Veterans while providing community service, awareness and education for current and future generations of Georgia, while honoring our fallen heroes. A memorial to the fallen on 9/11/2001 was added in a dedication on 9/11/2011. This includes a replica of the Twin Towers along with a mangled piece of iron from the New York Towers. An Americana Fourth of July Celebration is held here each year to honor our veterans. Intersection of Hwy 100 N. and Robertson Ave. For information contact Tommy Allen 770.574.2482.

West Georgia Museum has something for all ages. A look back at the late 1800 early 1900 era, including replicas of old stores, a barber shop and bank, will take you back to an earlier time. For the youngsters, a whole assemblage of dinosaurs greets visitors as they enter the museum. With a 30 ft. Tyrannosaurus Rex towering over several other smaller dinosaurs, it is indeed an awesome site that will inspire the young, inquisitive minds. A horse drawn buggy and a restored 1923 Ford Peddlers wagon will bring out the realism of that long ago period. For tours and information call 770.574.3125.

Buchanan, GA— Historic Haralson County Courthouse A picturesque agglomeration of towers, turrets, arches, differing wall surfaces, windows in a variety of sizes and shapes, and exuberant ornament, the old Haralson County courthouse, which has stood proudly in the center of the square in little Buchanan since 1892, epitomizes the Victorian period. The building is Queen Anne in style. It was designed by Bruce and Morgan, whose partnership produced at least eight Georgia courthouses including several along U.S. 27. The building now houses the local historical society and library. 770.646.3369

Little Creek One-Room School House The Little Creek one room school house was built around 1870 in the Little Creek Community of Haralson County, GA. It was one of 23 one room – one teacher schools in existence in 1871. It is a 20'x36' structure with a roof line of 20'. It is the only remaining one room school house in Haralson County and one of a few in the state of Georgia. There were 1016 people in one room schools in the county in 1871. Little Creek ceased to be used as a school in 1932. The school house was donated to the Haralson County Historical Society in 2006 and relocated to Van Wert Street. 770.646.3369

Bremen, GA – Mill Town Music Hall is a concert venue located in Bremen, GA specializing in family friendly entertainment. The facility will open in February 2012 and will host Southern Gospel, Country and Bluegrass events featuring local, regional and national acts. 1031 Alabama Ave 770.537.6455 Call for current schedule of events.

Waco, GA—West Georgia Technical College (Murphy Campus) is a state of the art technical school. On September 4, 2008, the State Board of the Technical College System of Georgia voted unanimously to consolidate 14 technical colleges statewide into six. The West Georgia Technical College/West Central Technical College merger made the newly named West Georgia Technical College the second largest technical college in Georgia. West Georgia Technical College serves seven counties – Carroll, Coweta, Douglas, Haralson, Heard, Meriwether and Troup. Westgatech.edu

Situated at the base of the Atlanta, Birmingham, Chattanooga triangle (ABC), Haralson County is perfectly located to enjoy a day free of hustle and bustle activities riding through the countryside.

Haralson County is home to almost 30,000 people. With four incorporated towns, a major hospital, local technical college and two public school systems serving more than 5700 students. Haralson County still boasts small town charm.

Places to Visit

Bremen, Buchanan, Tallapoosa, Waco

Tallapoosa - Helton Howland Park is a continuation of the Veterans Memorial with its displays of military vehicles. Enjoy a walk in the park or a picnic under the covered shelter. There is an amphitheater available for local groups. A fantastic fireworks display is held at the park on the 4th of July. Located just east of Tallapoosa on Hwy 78.

Tally Mountain Golf Course. Tally Mountain is a fun 18 hole regulation course. From the longest tees it features 6,874 yards of golf for a par of 72. The course was designed by Arthur L. Davis, SGCA/Joseph L. Lee and opened in 1963. The course rating is 70.0 with a slope rating of 125. golfnow.com

Budapest Cemetery is located east of Tallapoosa, GA on Budapest Cemetery Road off Hwy 78. The cemetery, containing about 20 graves, has a large arch gateway entrance and a split rail fence along the roadway. It appears that no burials have taken place here since 1956.

A local Boy Scout chose this cemetery as his Eagle Scout project in 2008 and the old cemetery was beautifully restored. The entrance was erected in honor of the Hungarian people that came to the area to help start the Grape Vineyards.

In 1888, three winemaking communities were founded here on some 2000 acres- A local land developer, Ralph L. Spencer, invited some 200 Hungarian wine-making families to settle this region. The wine industry flourished in this climate. In 1908 the passage of the Prohibition Act in Georgia spelled their doom. The residents were forced back to the Pennsylvania mines.

GPS 33°42.1609N, 85°13.2900W

Bremen—Lions Golf Club luxurious course stretches a long 7086 yards through lush greens and winding streams. An Arthur Davis Designed Signature Course, the Par-72 layout features fast undulating greens and intricate bunkers sure to test even the most experienced players' skills. You'll know you met your match when you take on Hole number 3, considered by far the most difficult, with it's high elevation and uphill approach. The Lion Golf Club's teaching facility can help transform you into the golfer you always wanted to be. Theliongolfclub.com

Wake Robin Alpacas, LLC farm is nestled in the foothills of the Great Smokey Mountains about fifty miles west of Atlanta, GA, off I-20 exit 11 in Bremen. They welcome you to schedule a visit to their farm to meet their lovely alpaca family. Come see the difference that good breeding makes!

As pharmacists, they decided to name the farm and crias for medicinal herbs and flowers. Wake Robin is the common name for the trillium, a wildflower that grows in this area. It blooms in the spring; therefore, it "wakes the robins". Wakerobinalpacas.com

Waco—Yogi Bear's JellyStone Park Not only tent and RV camping, but plenty of activities for the kids. Train Rides, pedal carts, pictures with Yogi, indoor movie theater, meet Paco the talking parrot, visit tortoises up to 110 lbs. Adult and kids swimming areas. Great family fun!
Georgiajellystone.com

Dub Denman Canoe Trail is open along the Tallapoosa River in Haralson County. Approximately 27 miles long, the trail connects with the Alabama Trail. Five launch sites are available from just north of Buchanan along Hwy 27 to Liner Road off Hwy 78 in Tallapoosa just before entering Alabama. Five locations for you to experience our beautiful, quiet and one of the cleanest rivers in the West Georgia area. A new river outfitter opened in Tallapoosa in April of 2011. He offers river packages or daily options to paddle the river- tallapoosapaddlingcompany.com.